The Legal And Social Environment Of Business

Douglas John William Gergacz

Business is affected by different factors which collectively form the business environment. These include economic, social, legal, technological